5 GIFTS, ENTERTAINMENT AND HOSPITALITY

5.1 Gifts, Entertainment and Hospitality are usually assessed as high risk areas for bribery. SUNREIT has adopted a “NO GIFT” Policy whereby, subject only to certain narrow exceptions, SUNREIT employees are prohibited from, directly or indirectly, receiving or providing gifts. SUNREIT requires employees and directors to abide by this policy to avoid conflict of interest or the appearance of conflict of interest for either party in on-going or potential business dealings between SUNREIT and external parties as gifts can be seen as a bribes that may tarnish SUNREIT reputation or be in violation of anti-bribery and corruption laws.

However, SUNREIT recognises that the exchange of business courtesies, such as modest gifts, hospitality and entertainment (including meals, invitations to attend promotional events or parties) particularly during festive periods is customary and legitimate to create goodwill, and/or strengthen business and commercial relationships. 5.3 The basic rules on Gifts, Entertainment and Hospitality expenses² are :-

- Bona fide: Made for the right reason: if a gift, entertainment or hospitality, it should be given clearly as an act of appreciation, if travel expenses then for a bona fide business purpose.
- No obligation: The activity will not create any obligation or expectation on the recipient.
- No undue influence: The expenditure will not be seen as intended for, or capable of, achieving undue influence in relation to a business transaction or public policy engagement.
- Made openly : It will not be performed in secret and be undocumented – if it is, then the purpose becomes questionable.
