

Raja Nazrin Shah (middle) glancing through the coffee table book that was launched in conjunction with the StarBiz-ICR Malaysia 2008, accompanied by Securities Commission Malaysia chairman Tan Sri Zarinah Anwar (left) and Star Publications (M) Bhd group managing director/chief executive officer Datin Linda Ngiam.

Seated in front: (from left) Association of Chartered Certified Accountants Malaysia country head Jennifer Lopez, Securities Industry Development Corp CEO John Zinkin, Datin Linda Ngiam, ICR Malaysia chairman Datuk Johan Raslan, PricewaterhouseCoopers Associates Sdn Bhd senior executive director Chin Suit Fang, master of ceremony Amir Razak and members of the organising committee.

Day of honours

Pictures by GLEN GUAN, AZMAN GHANI, SAM THAM and NORAFIFI EHSAN

About 200 people graced the occasion.

IT was an auspicious occasion as Malaysia's public listed companies were recognised and honoured for their outstanding corporate responsibility practices at the StarBiz-ICR Malaysia Corporate Responsibility Awards 2009 presentation ceremony last Friday.

The event saw four award categories under marketplace, workplace, environment and community; and for two market capitalisation segments (RM1bil and above, and below RM1bil).

Winners under the segment of market capitalisation of RM1bil and above were Nestle (M) Bhd (marketplace category), Guinness Anchor Bhd (workplace category), DiGi.Com Bhd (environment category) and Telekom Malaysia Bhd (community category).

For companies with market capitalisation below RM1bil, the winners were Malaysia Airports Holdings Bhd (environment and community), Tex Cycle Technology (M) Bhd (marketplace) and Aluminium Company of Malaysia Bhd (workplace).

The prestigious event was attended by over 200 people and was graced by His Royal Highness Raja Nazrin Shah, The Crown Prince of Perak, who was also the patron of StarBiz-ICR Malaysia CR Awards.

The awards were from an initiative between The Star and Institute of Corporate Responsibility (ICR) Malaysia, together with their working partners, the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants, PricewaterhouseCoopers and the Securities Industry Development Corp.

The official sponsors were HSBC Bank Malaysia Bhd and Canon Marketing (M) Sdn Bhd.

From left: Chemical Company of Malaysia Bhd corporate affairs GM Nur Melissa Fernandez Abdullah, group MD Datuk Mohamad Hashim Ahmad Tajudin and risk management GM C.M. Balam.

A token of appreciation for the judges: (from left) Datuk Johan Raslan, British Malaysian Chamber of Commerce chairman Datuk Peter Wentworth, honorary president of the Business Council for Sustainable Development Malaysia Datuk Kok Wee Kiat, SC chairman Tan Sri Zarinah Anwar, Bursa Malaysia Bhd CEO Datuk Yusli Mohamed Yusoff and Datin Linda Ngiam.

From left: Aluminium Company of Malaysia Bhd CFO Krishna Prasad, MD Tan See Ping, PricewaterhouseCoopers partner Lee Tuck Heng, SC executive director Goh Ching Yin and PricewaterhouseCoopers Taxation Services Sdn Bhd senior executive director Frances Po.

From left: Astro community affairs corporate responsibility special officer Muhamad Asyraf Ahmad Suhaibi, director David Yap, head Jolyn Gasper and Astro communications vice-president Tammy Toh.

Nestle (M) Bhd finance and control Malaysia & Singapore executive director Marc Seiler and corporate responsibility and internal communications manager Immy Ooi Lay Imm looking at montage of images.

From left: HSBC Bank Malaysia Bhd manager of corporate sustainability Lois Kam and Canon corporate planning division senior manager Allan Choy chatting with Star Publications advertisement sales (agency & magazines) section manager Sara Chacko.