SunCon (SCOG.KL)

Resilient replenishment despite challenging market conditions

Maintain OUTPERFORM

Previous Rating: OUTPERFORM

Target price (RM): 2.50

Previous target price (RM): 2.50

- The re-implementation of the CMCO has had limited impact on SunCon's existing projects. Construction work as well as payment collections have been progressing well with little disruptions.
- YTD new order secured of RM2.3 bn has surpassed SunCon's FY20 target of RM2.0 bn. Revival of mega projects in Budget 2021 could potentially benefit SunCon. Other catalysts: (1) India metro rail project, (2) LSS4, (3) local commercial developments, and (4) in-house development projects.
- We tweak our FY21/FY22 net profit estimates by +1%/+3% to factor in the new India road works project as well as the rooftop solar projects. Our TP remains unchanged at RM2.50.
- Maintain OUTPERFORM. We view SunCon as a 'safer' choice than its peers and it looks better positioned to weather the challenging economic and political conditions. Positive newsflow from Budget 2021 and further evidence of pick-up in property activity could re-rate the stock.

Conditional Movement Control Order update

The re-implementation of the conditional movement control order (CMCO) from 14 Oct until 9 Nov in Selangor, Kuala Lumpur, and Putrajaya to combat the recent spike in new COVID-19 infections has limited impact on SunCon's existing projects. Almost all of its existing projects are situated in areas under the CMCO but as economic activities are allowed under this soft lockdown, construction works have been progressing well. There has also been no major disruptions to SunCon's construction supply chain, while payment collection remain healthy.

2020 new orderbook replenishment surpasses target

SunCon has recently secured another RM333 mn worth of contracts, bringing its total new order secured YTD to RM2.3 bn, exceeding its FY20 target of RM2.0bn. The RM333 mn contracts consist of: (1) Meensurutti - Chidambaram road works project in India worth RM315 mn, and, (2) roof top solar for 3 factories by the F&N group of companies valued at RM18 mn. We believe SunCon's strong orderbook replenishment, especially in a period where construction orderflows have been sluggish, further demonstrates its strong technical know-how and established track record.

Budget 2021 could see the revival of mega projects

We believe that there could be scope for pick-up in construction order flow going forward as the government needs to urgently roll out infrastructure projects as part of its recovery plan to cushion the effects of COVID-19. We expect public transportation and healthcare to be among the focus areas and projects that could be featured in the upcoming Budget 2021 on 6 November. These projects could potentially include the revival of MRT 3, KL-Singapore High Speed Rail, public hospitals, etc. Given the limited fiscal resources, the government would most likely consider PFIs (private financed initiatives).

We are of the opinion that SunCon would be well positioned to secure new contracts for these projects given its strong reputation and track record. It has successfully completed work on the Kelana Jaya LRT extension and participated in work for MRT 1. It is also currently working on jobs for the MRT 2 and LRT 3. Furthermore, its healthy balance sheet with a net-cash-to-equity ratio of 0.65x as at end-Jun 2020, should also allow it to participate in mega projects as a turnkey contractor. As a recap, SunCon had previously formed a consortium together with IJM, Jalinan Rejang, and Maltimur Resources to participate in the Project Delivery Partner (PDP) tender for the KL-SIN HSR.

Apart from the mega projects, other near-to-medium term catalyst for SunCon are:

- India metro rail project - SunCon has submitted a bid for work on the India metro rail project and the contract size could be valued at ~RM300 mn. The tender results are expected to be announced by the end of the year or in early 2021.
- Local commercial development projects - While local development projects have been scarce since GE14, SunCon remains hopeful and has tendered for several commercial property related projects that may potentially be valued at >RM1 bn.
- Large scale solar - SunCon has submitted bids to participate as an EPCC contractor in the fourth cycle of the large scale solar (LSS) scheme. Under the LSS4 scheme, Malaysia had called for competitive bids for 1GW of solar plants worth RM4 bn, which is the largest capacity offered under the LSS scheme. According to management, a 50MW plant would fetch a contract value of ~RM150 mn. If SunCon is successful, this would be its maiden foray into the large scale renewable energy sector.
- In-house development projects - SunCon's parent company is embarking on an expansion strategy to increase its healthcare presence in the country. It intends to invest RM1-1.5 bn on a network of mid-sized tertiary medical centres with an average number of beds per hospital of 200-250. Its expansion plan consists of 6 new hospitals, and SunCon is currently working on the Sunway Medical Centre expansion as well as construction of Sunway Medical Centre Seberang Jaya.

Valuation, Methodology and Risks

Target Price and Rating

Valuation Methodology and Risks: (12 months) for SunCon (SCOG.KL)

Method: Our target price of RM2.50 is derived by pegging FY21e estimates to Sunway Construction's historical ex-cash P/E average of 16.5x. We rate the stock OUTPERFORM. We believe that SunCon is a safer choice and is better positioned to weather through the turbulent economic and political conditions.

Risk: The main risks to our target price of RM2.50 and OUTPERFORM rating for Sunway Construction include: (1) changes in government policy, (2) increase in payment risk from customers on the back of a prolonged slowdown in the construction and property sector, and (3) a spike in raw material prices.

* Asterisk signifies initiation or assumption of coverage.

As of December 10, 2012 Analysts' stock rating are defined as follows:

Outperform (O) : The stock's total return is expected to outperform the relevant benchmark* over the next 12 months.

Neutral (N) : The stock's total return is expected to be in line with the relevant benchmark* over the next 12 months.

Underperform (U) : The stock's total return is expected to underperform the relevant benchmark* over the next 12 months.

*Relevant benchmark by region: As of 10th December 2012, Japanese ratings are based on a stock's total return relative to the analyst's coverage universe which consists of all companies covered by the analyst within the relevant sector, with Outperforms representing the most attractive, Neutrals the less attractive, and Underperforms the least attractive investment opportunities. As of 2nd October 2012, U.S. and Canadian as well as European (excluding Turkey) ratings are based on a stock's total return relative to the analyst's coverage universe which consists of all companies covered by the analyst within the relevant sector, with Outperforms representing the most attractive, Neutrals the less attractive, and Underperforms the least attractive investment opportunities. For Latin America, Turkey and Asia (excluding Japan and Australia), stock ratings are based on a stock's total return relative to the average total return of the relevant country or regional benchmark (India - S&P BSE Sensex Index); prior to 2nd October 2012 U.S. and Canadian ratings were based on (1) a stock's absolute total return potential to its current share price and (2) the relative attractiveness of a stock's total return potential within an analyst's coverage universe. For Australian and New Zealand stocks, the expected total return (ETR) calculation includes 12-month rolling dividend yield. An Outperform rating is assigned where an ETR is greater than or equal to 7.5%; Underperform where an ETR less than or equal to 5%. A Neutral may be assigned where the ETR is between -5% and 15%. The overlapping rating range allows analysts to assign a rating that puts ETR in the context of associated risks. Prior to 18 May 2015, ETR ranges for Outperform and Underperform ratings did not overlap with Neutral thresholds between 15% and 7.5%, which was in operation from 7 July 2011.

Restricted (R) : In certain circumstances, Credit Suisse policy and/or applicable law and regulations preclude certain types of communications, including an investment recommendation, during the course of Credit Suisse's engagement in an investment banking transaction and in certain other circumstances.

Not Rated (NR) : Credit Suisse Equity Research does not have an investment rating or view on the stock or any other securities related to the company at this time.

Not Covered (NC) : Credit Suisse Equity Research does not provide ongoing coverage of the company or offer an investment rating or investment view on the equity security of the company or related products.

Volatility Indicator [V] : A stock is defined as volatile if the stock price has moved up or down by 20% or more in a month in at least 8 of the past 24 months or the analyst expects significant volatility going forward.

Analysts' sector weightings are distinct from analysts' stock ratings and are based on the analyst's expectations for the fundamentals and/or valuation of the sector* relative to the group's historic fundamentals and/or valuation:

Overweight : The analyst's expectation for the sector's fundamentals and/or valuation is favorable over the next 12 months.

Market Weight : The analyst's expectation for the sector's fundamentals and/or valuation is neutral over the next 12 months.

Underweight : The analyst's expectation for the sector's fundamentals and/or valuation is cautious over the next 12 months.

*An analyst's coverage sector consists of all companies covered by the analyst within the relevant sector. An analyst may cover multiple sectors.

The value of securities and financial instruments is subject to exchange rate fluctuation that may have a positive or adverse effect on the price or income of such securities or financial instruments. Investors in securities such as ADR's, the values of which are influenced by currency volatility, effectively assume this risk. Structured securities are complex instruments, typically involve a high degree of risk and are intended for sale only to sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. The market value of any structured security may be affected by changes in economic, financial and political factors (including, but not limited to, spot and forward interest and exchange rates), time to maturity, market conditions and volatility, and the credit quality of any issuer or reference issuer. Any investor interested in purchasing a structured product should conduct their own investigation and analysis of the product and consult with their own professional advisers as to the risks involved in making such a purchase. Some investments discussed in this report may have a high level of volatility. High volatility investments may experience sudden and large falls in their value causing losses when that investment is realised. Those losses may equal your original investment. Indeed, in the case of some investments the potential losses may exceed the amount of initial investment and, in such circumstances, you may be required to pay more money to support those losses. Income yields from investments may fluctuate and, in consequence, initial capital paid to make the investment may be used as part of that income yield. Some investments may not be readily realisable and it may be difficult to sell or realise those investments, similarly it may prove difficult for you to obtain reliable information about the value, or risks, to which such an investment is exposed.
