Sunway Construction (SCGB MK)

Not Looking Back; Keep BUY

- Stay BUY, new MYR2.09 TP from MYR2.14, 16% upside and c.2% yield.
 Sunway Construction, our sector big-cap Top Pick, would likely emerge an early winner should a more upbeat scenario unfold for the sector. Our optimism on earnings recovery is based on strength in work execution, aggressive tendering and steady in-house jobs, which appear to support our 18x target P/E. Current level presents a favourable entry point for the stock, which is trading at 15.5x FY21F EPS (below its 5-year mean of 16x).
- A clean slate for LRT3 project. Sunway Construction has signed a new agreement with MRCB George Kent, the turnkey contractor for the Light Rail Transit Line 3 (LRT3) project. It entails a revised work scope for Package GS07-08, which was originally for the construction of guideway, stations, iconic bridge, park and rides, ancillary buildings and other associated works. The scope is now revised and has arrived at a reduced contract price of MYR1.3bn. In the new agreement, completion is expected by Nov 2023 (extended by another 37 months) from the original date in 4Q20. We had earlier built in a revised timeline for the LRT3 project in our forecasts.
- Contract revised at a sizeable amount... In our calculation, the sum reduction works out to c.MYR883m, which is c.40% of the original amount (MYR2.1bn). Consequently, the unbilled value now stands at MYR706m. Taken together, our expectations for progress billings are factored into our forecasts until FY23. While the value is significantly reduced, we also take into account the possible expansion in net margin as Sunway Construction will be able to spread out its resources more efficiently, in our view.
- ...but earnings visibility remains robust. The outstanding orderbook now stands at MYR5.3bn, which offers three years' visibility for the construction segment. Positively, the reduction in LRT3 contract value is buffered by the new in-house jobs announced this month with a contract sum of MYR747m. The latest contracts clinched were for the construction of commercial and residential buildings in Selangor and the Klang Valley. New jobs inflow is seen as strong and on track thus far, and hence we retain our MYR2bn target for this year.
- Estimates fine-tuned to reflect the latest change. Following the revised LRT3 contract amount, we adjusted our earnings forecasts for FY20-22 by -5%, -3% and -3% respectively. This takes into account the progress billings cycle for both LRT3 and FY20 new orders as well as revision of LRT3's net margin by +150bps. Our target P/E of 18x (+1SD of its 5-year mean) looks justified considering the group's resilience and strength in job replenishment.
- Downside risks include failure to secure new contracts, prolonged downturn in the retail and property markets, and longer-than-expected delay in the rollout of mega projects.
